

The image shows the interior of a bar named 'dear grace'. On the left, there is a long bar counter with a white, ribbed front and a wooden top. Behind the counter, a well-stocked bar is visible with various bottles and glasses. Above the bar, there are hanging plants and a display of bottles. A modern, dome-shaped lamp sits on the counter. To the right, there are high-top stools and a large window with a view of the outside. The floor is made of light-colored tiles. The overall atmosphere is bright and modern.

Dear Grace serves a modern all-day menu of wholesome dishes, made from locally sourced ingredients and prepared with care. Interesting small plates packed with flavour, bright and healthy salad bowls and a smoky grill form the heart of the menu, while our sharing boards tie everything together for the indulgent or the indecisive.

Refined cocktails dripping in fresh fruit, food sourced from local markets and an obsession with freshness and seasonality means there is something for every taste at Dear Grace, all year round.
